

Jackie Giordano | Implementation Specialist

Professional Background:

Graduated in 2007 from Bloomsburg University of Pennsylvania with a Bachelors Degree in Mass Communication. She has been working in the payroll industry for the past 8 years and joined Coastal Payroll in 2012.

Key Strengths:

Stellar customer service skills, responsive, team-player, multi-tasking queen

Milestones:

- Married her high school sweetheart in 2009
- Ran her first half marathon in 2010
- Started responding to the name 'Mom' in 2013
- 2016 Padres Season Ticket holder (All-Star game here I come!)

Personal notes:

Jackie has an unhealthy love for romance novels, donuts, and lifting weights. Loves going to country concerts (yee haw). Always down to go to Vegas but not really into gambling. Refers to 'pizzas' as 'pies' because she's from the other side of the country.

"If I could somehow eat a donut while deadlifting with a romance audio book playing in the background I think my heart would explode with happiness."
