

Jorge Arvalo | Distribution Specialist

Professional Background:

Worked in the restaurant industry in tourist filled Old Town throughout college to help pay for school; where he learned the importance of customer service and attention to detail. Graduated in May of 2015 from SDSU with a Classical Humanities degree and Spanish minor and later joined the Coastal Payroll team in 2016.

Key Strengths:

Communication, Team Player, Determination, Attention to detail, Desire to learn, Never settle.

Milestones:

- Ran first race at the SpeakUp5k
- First of his family to graduate from a four-year University
- Future aspirations of a Master's degree, never stop learning.

Personal notes:

In his free time, Jorge enjoys dining with his girlfriend, trying different cuisines, and a good movie or TV series binge. You can also find Jorge helping his father with projects throughout the house. But where you are sure to always run into him is out on the soccer field and especially on the basketball court, attempting a game winning fade away shot.

"Why do we fall? To learn to pick ourselves back up"